ENROLLMENT INFORMATION FOR DEFENSIVE BASIC PISTOL COURSE

WHERE:

The Anvil Rock Training Center, a private range facility in the Lewisburg, WV area, approximately four hours drive from Washington DC. See driving directions on the attached enrollment form.

WHEN:

Day_____ Month_____ Year_____

Class begins at the range at 9 AM Sharp.

WHAT TO BRING:

The pistol you intend to train with, magazines, holster and a sturdy belt, magazine pouches or speed loaders and carriers for revolvers. We have some pistols and accessory gear for loan to those who wish to arrange for it...call us.

Dress for the outdoors with the weather in mind. We train, rain or shine. Wear comfortable shoes or boots, and trousers with belt loops. A typical student wears jeans or cargo pants, shirt or T-shirt, jacket, comfortable shoes or hiking boots, hat, and sunglasses.

Eye and ear protection are also required for students on the range. We have some ear protection and eye protection for loan to those who have not experienced a formal firearms training course.

If you have questions about what to bring, call us at 304-445-2229 or email us at:

mblum@antaresdefense.com

WHAT TO EXPECT:

An entire day of firearms training, (starts 9am Sharp), with a lunch break and several breaks during the instructional and practical shooting sessions. Students will be instructed in the safe and practical use of the pistol for self-defense. Additionally, reality based scenarios will be included to allow students to use the skills they acquired during training.

COST:

The cost is $175.00 for a full day of training.
